

We have two residences. One in AZ the other in CO which we frequently drive between. We originally turned to XM as a means of entertainment that could span the entire 12 hour trip but we now have begun to use it for information on weather and traffic as well. Don't let public broadcasters tell me what my monthly service fee should include.